Art Unit: 1648

Clarification of the prior Restriction Requirement is set forth below. The examiner apologizes for failing to consider the Preliminary amendment filed at the time of the original instant disclosure. Any inconvenience to applicants is regretted.

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claims 16-21, 26-28 32-39 and 41-43, drawn to an EHV mutant comprising a mutation in the endogenous promoter region of an essential gene, a vaccine comprising the mutant and a process of preparing the mutant.
- II. Claims 22-25 and 40, drawn to a nucleic acid sequence encoding an endogenous promoter region of an immediate early gene from EHV.
- III. Claims 29-31, drawn to a method of attenuating EHV.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature defining Group I is drawn to an equine herpesvirus comprising a mutation in the endogenous promoter region of an essential gene. This Group also comprises the first method of using this virus as a vaccine and a first method of making the mutant virus. Any subsequent method of making or using the first product or any subsequent product that does not share the special technical feature with Group I lacks unity of invention with the first Group.

Art Unit: 1648

The special technical feature of Group II is a second product, drawn to a nucleic acid encoding an endogenous promoter of EHV. This group does not share the special technical feature with Group I because the nucleic acid does not comprise the structural components or functional capabilities inherent within the mutant EHV of Group I.

The special technical feature of Group III is drawn to a second method of making the first product of Group I. This invention lacks unity of invention with the first group because the first group comprises a first method of making the product and any subsequent method of making lacks unity of invention with the first group.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(l).
